

ABOUT US

WHAT DOES BAF STAND FOR?

The Burrard Arts Foundation.

WHERE IS BAF LOCATED?

BAF located in Mount Pleasant on the corner of Broadway and Quebec St.

WHERE DO THEY FIT INTO THE VANCOUVER ART COMMUNITY?

- Non-profit foundation
- Can be categorized between a society and a community gallery
- Showcases artistic expression that is local or global
- Participates in both public art and gallery engagements

WHAT IS THEIR MANDATE?

“We believe that art should be accessible to all” *

As a community-oriented gallery, BAF aims to create an open platform for art both within a gallery space and the public domain. BAF acts as an enabler to allow artists to develop their practice and share it with both the local community and the world.

GETTING INVOLVED

Internships:

- SFU internship happens in the summer
- Collaboration with UBC’s VISA 375 class

Residencies:

- For emerging artists
- Funded by grants

WHAT’S ON NOW?

Kelly Lycan's More Than Nothing, Nov. 5 - Dec 17

Group Visual Response to More Than Nothing, Nov 26

“Providing assistance to promising, qualified emerging artists through professional development and exhibition opportunities” *